

2021 Summer Reading @ WCDS

Entering 1st Grade:

- Share reading experiences daily with your child. Reading to them and having them read to you are equally important. You can even try listening to audiobooks in the car. (The public library has a great selection of picture books with audio components to listen to on long car trips.)

Entering 2nd Grade:

- Try to read six books this summer from different genres including poetry, fiction, and non-fiction with at least two of them being chapter books.

Entering 3rd Grade:

- Read one of Megan McDonald's Judy Moody or Stink books in August to discuss.
- Try to read six additional books this summer.

Entering 4th Grade:

- Vincent Shadow: Toy Inventor by Tim Kehoe
- Try to read six additional books this summer.

Entering 5th Grade:

- Fish in a Tree by Lynda Mullaly Hunt
- Try to read six additional books this summer.

Entering 6th Grade:

- Ghost by Jason Reynolds
- Try to read six additional books this summer.

Entering 7th Grade:

- The Secret Life of Bees by Sue Monk Kidd
- Try to read six additional books this summer.

Entering 8th Grade:

- The Secret Life of Bees by Sue Monk Kidd.
- Try to read six additional books this summer.